

The Argument Sandwich: Quest Log & Graphic Organizer

Name: _____

Welcome, Debater! Every major debate is like an epic video game quest. To complete the quest and unlock the win, your argument needs a complete inventory. If you leave out even one ingredient, your argument falls apart! Use this graphic organizer to log your main ideas, track your evidence, and map out your path to victory.

Quest 1: The Core Ingredients of an Argument

Review the three critical components required to build a complete "Argument Sandwich." Every successful speech must possess all three parts:

Layer Name	What It Is	The Key Question It Answers
1. THE CLAIM (Top Bun)	Your Big Idea. A simple, clear sentence that tells the audience exactly what you want to prove.	"What is the ultimate goal or stance?"
2. THE WARRANT (The Filling)	The Proof or Reason. The evidence and logic showing why your claim is true. Without this, it's just an opinion!	"This is true because..."
3. THE IMPACT (Bottom Bun)	Why It Matters. Connects your idea directly to real people's lives and the real	"So what? Why should we care?"

	world.

Quest 2: Level-Up Practice (Guided Example)

Let's look at how a complete argument looks when responding to the emergency scenario:

"Recess is Canceled!"

- CLAIM: The school must keep recess.
- WARRANT: ...because playing outside gives students a mental break and helps them focus better during lessons.
- IMPACT: ...because when students focus better, they get higher grades, level up their learning, and feel much happier!

Quest 3: Build Your Own Argument Sandwich

Choose a topic assigned by your coach or select one of the classic challenges below (e.g., School Uniforms or The Mars in a Box Mission). Write your complete argument below:

THE CLAIM (Your Big Idea / Goal):

State clearly what you want to prove...

THE WARRANT (Your Reasons, Evidence, & Logic):

This is true because... (Include your data, facts, or logical connections)

THE IMPACT (The "So What?" / Real-World Meaning):

This matters to real people because... (Connect it to life, happiness, or academic success)

Quest 4: The 3-Question Challenge

Test your mastery before entering the debate round. Write your answers below:

1. What happens if you present a Claim without a Warrant?

2. What happens if you present a Warrant without an Impact?

3. Why is the IMPACT absolutely necessary to win an argument?
